

Addy Farou – Vice President, Global Procurement – Indirect

Addy Farou joined Tenneco in March 2023 as Vice President, Global Procurement – Indirect. He is a member of the company’s executive leadership team and is responsible for developing and leading a new, dedicated global procurement – indirect organization which will support the entire Tenneco enterprise.

Farou brings with him more than 30 years of progressive global sourcing, operations, engineering, and global supply chain experience as well as more than 10 years of experience as a chief procurement officer.

Prior to joining Tenneco, he served as chief procurement officer for both OmniMax International and Ingersoll Rand (Gardner Denver). Before his chief procurement officer roles, Farou held progressive global leadership roles in operations, plant management, and engineering at Ametek, SPX, and Diebold Nixdorf.

Farou holds both a bachelor’s degree in electrical engineering and a master’s degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Akron.

In addition, he holds certificates in leadership and advanced training in LEAN, as well as other certificates in manufacturing, back-office improvement processes and transformation.