

Jeff Stafeil – Chief Financial Officer

Jeff Stafeil was named Tenneco’s Chief Financial Officer in November 2022. He is a member of the company’s executive leadership team and is responsible for financial activities in the company including financial planning and analysis, accounting and reporting, tax and treasury.

Stafeil brings to Tenneco extensive operational leadership and financial management experience, primarily within automotive supplier companies. His experience covers both publicly traded as well as private businesses.

Stafeil joined Tenneco after spending six years with Adient, where he served as executive vice president and chief financial officer, leading all of the company’s financial activities, including treasury, tax and audit as well as information technology.

Prior to joining Adient, Stafeil was executive vice president and chief financial officer with Visteon, a global automotive electronics supplier and Fortune 500 company.

He began his career with Ernst & Young and held management positions with Peterson Consulting and Booz Allen Hamilton before moving to a series of domestic and international executive finance roles within the automotive sector.

Stafeil serves as a member of the board of directors for Arconic Inc. and Racquet Up Detroit. He previously served on the Autism Alliance of Michigan’s board of directors and as the audit committee chairman of Mentor Graphics and Metaldyne Performance Group.

Stafeil holds a bachelor’s degree in accounting from Indiana University and an MBA from Duke University’s Fuqua School of Business.

Tenneco Inc.
15701 Technology Drive
Northville, MI 48168-2849
www.tenneco.com